Young leaders, welcome to The One Young World Manchester Summit 2022

Thursday 8 September - Agenda subject to change (all times BST)

The final day of the One Young World 2022 Manchester Summit will focus on the plenary challenge of ethical leadership. Hear more from experts about the role of ethical and impactful leadership, and how governments, corporations and civil society can all contribute towards developing more responsible and effective leaders than previous generations.

Day four also highlights the role of sport in generating positive social change, and features globally renowned athletes that are currently taking the lead in benefiting young people around the world. The fourth and final Spotlight Session of the 2022 Summit addresses the ethical dilemmas we face when navigating AI, the Metaverse and other innovative technologies of the future.
